

Preps Face 'Key' Opponents

By HENRY BURKE
Press-Herald Sports Editor

Four of the five high school varsity football teams in Torrance have the attitude they are going to win championships this year. Each of them, however, is so loaded with resistance from the opposition tonight that it is unlikely all will survive.

The biggest struggle faces Torrance which makes its Sky League debut tonight against unbeaten Rolling Hills. The game will be at Torrance.

The next most difficult test faces Bishop Montgomery which risks its 4-0 record against Mount Carmel, also unbeaten until absorbing a last second 10-7 loss to St. Bernard's last week. This one will be at Serra High.

North High is rejuvenated following a 27-24 conquest of Mira Costa, but the Saxons go right back into the frying pan with a home match tonight against Santa Monica. The Vikings appeared headed for another Bay League title until Redondo topped them last week, 7-0. North now appears to have at least a heartening chance against Samohi.

West (4-0) is becoming a prime contender in the Bay League, but barring a stiff upset against Inglewood tonight at Sentinel Field, the Warriors are safe from the warpath.

The lineup of tough games for South High (0-2) never ceases to ease. The Spartans have the job of trying to knock Mira Costa (1-1) completely out of the Bay League picture tonight.

Morningside High, ranked with Rolling Hills as two most logical league favorited, runs into Palos Verdes this afternoon.

SHOULD both North High and West High fall by the wayside in the Bay League, at least five schools will still have a shot at the title. Not only is Santa Monica a possibility, but Mira Costa and Inglewood are candidates. Although Redondo is 1-1 against Hawthorne (0-2), the Cougars are a choice in their game tonight. It's one of those situations that makes the Bay League a little complicated.

THE RACE for the Camino Real League is expected to have its round of peculiarities before the season ends. It has been said from the start that nobody is going to go unbeaten in the Camino Real League and that prediction could come closer to reality tonight when Mount Carmel (1-1) entertains Bishop Montgomery (2-0) at Serra and St. Bernard's (2-0) plays host to Serra (2-0).

HOW DULL it must be in the Pioneer League?

CARRYING BIG LOAD . . . The El Camino College running game will have to rely more and more on former West High ace Dave Boyd. His sidekick Tom Reynolds has a broken leg. Boyd has run for 500 yards in four games this season.

Head Man Of Huskies

Jerry Kaloper, the former quarterback star from Fermin Lasuen High in San Pedro, spent four years at Washington before being permitted a minute at the controls of the football team.

"It was a long wait, but it was worth it," said Kaloper Wednesday.

Kaloper and the Washington team move into the Coliseum Saturday at 1:30 p.m. to face top-ranker USC.

"We may have blown our chances for the Rose Bowl," said Kaloper, "but we're going to have something to say about which team goes there."

Ironically, Kaloper migrated to Seattle in the fall of 1964 because the Huskies had gone to the Rose Bowl three times in five years.

"I'd say that was the greatest single factor in influencing me to attend Washington," admitted Kaloper, who piloted Fermin Lasuen to a CIF "AA" football championship in 1962.

Rose Bowlitis also was the greatest single factor in influencing Husky coach Jim Owens to junk his rollout offense and quarterback Tom Manke last spring.

The Huskies hadn't been to Pasadena since 1964, and Owens was becoming impatient.

"The new offense emphasizes ball-handling and passing for the quarterback," said Kaloper. "Those are the things I do best."

To everyone's surprise, Kaloper quickly moved into the No. 1 position in the spring.

"Jerry's greatest asset is his leadership ability," says Owens. "He has good field intelligence and thinks very quickly."

Report on the UCLA Bruins

What's that old wheeze about "there is always a silver lining." Well, things aren't as bad as they might appear for UCLA's football Bruins, a team that has lost its last two games and now has a 2-2 record as midseason nears.

The Bruins go north to Berkeley Saturday at 1:30 p.m. to resume all-important Pacific-8 play against California's best football team in many years, a Bear team that has posted a solid 3-1 record.

After winning three straight games over Michigan (21-7), Colorado (10-0) and San Jose State (46-0), Cal was upset by Army (10-7) last Saturday by a 62-yard touchdown pass in the closing minutes. This was only the second TD the defensive-minded Bears have given up in four games—and, mark this, they have yet to allow one by rushing.

But in losing to high-ranking and undefeated Penn State, 21-6, last Saturday, UCLA coach Tommy Prothro still said "it was our best effort of the year."

He explained, "The defense played exceptionally well for the most part and our offensive line played its best game so far." The offensive forwards did a fine job of blocking for tailbacks Greg Jones and Mickey Cureton as they broke loose for consistent yardage against the nation's No. 1 rushing defense.

The Nittany Lions went into the game having held three opponents to a mere 100 yards rushing, but Jones and Cureton were given the holes to net 85 and 35 yards, respectively. They were running with abandon and rate as a really superb 1-2 threat at tailback.

And the Bruins have high hopes that their No. 1 quarterback, Bill Bolden, will be ready for full duty against Cal Saturday. His expected return will give the team the pass-run option threat that has been sorely lacking since he was sidelined early in the second quarter of the Pitt opener.

Big Bill saw token action against Penn State. As Prothro put it, "He was in there for just a few plays to get the feel of the football. I hope and think he'll be ready for Cal—but I just don't know if he'll start."

Norm Van Brocklin Comes to Coliseum

Norm Van Brocklin, beginning his third week as head coach of the Atlanta Falcons, has lost little time in proving he is a perfect antidote to anything approaching monotony in the National Football League.

The daring Dutchman, who quarterbacked some of the most exciting Rams teams in history and produced a flashy winner in his six-year tenure as bossman of the Minnesota Vikings, took just one week to turn things around at bit in the NFL.

Named to replace Norb Hecker at the Falcons helm two weeks ago, Van Brocklin

Fisherman Lands Shark

The largest Thresher Shark, caught with rod and reel off the coast, was landed last Friday by Steve Berry of Torrance.

In a battle, it took 5 hours and 40 minutes, from just north of Catalina Island to Pt. Vicente, to gaff the 13 foot, 297 lb. fish.

Lightweight Teams Tied For First

Two touchdowns in the first quarter led the West High Bees to a 25-0 win over Hawthorne in a Bay League game Friday.

The Warriors are tied with North for first place. The North B's scored a 50-6 win over Mira Costa.

Sprint Car Races Set

J. C. Agajianian will bring the sprint cars of the United States Auto Club to Gardena's Ascot Park for two fall races on the half-mile clay oval. The dates Oct. 26 and Nov. 9.

A field of 30 drivers is expected to be on hand for both events. Racing will start each night at 8:30 p.m., preceded by qualifying runs at 7 p.m.

Expected to head the field is current USAC sprint car point leader Larry Dickson of Marietta, Ohio, winner of 12 feature races already this season. He will pilot a Chevy V8 powered racer owned by Steve Stapp of Anaheim.

Too large to get into the 27 foot power boat, owned by Berry's father-in-law, Bill McCullough, the shark was towed into the Portofino Marina in Redondo Beach.

To accomplish the feat, a 550 lb. test line was used.

The Thresher is one of the few edible sharks off the coast, according to McCullough. The jaw bone and eyes were sent as specimens to the L. A. County Museum.

Steve Berry and his wife live at 23906 Ocean Ave.

CONQUERED . . . After a sea battle of five hours and 40 minutes, Steve Berry of Torrance landed a 13-foot, 297 pound Thresher Shark off the northern tip of Catalina to Pt. Vicente last Friday.

Upsets Show In CIF

Southland prep football buffs are still reeling after a second straight weekend of upsets juggled league standings and left pre-season favorites wondering what happened.

Six-legged leagues begin play this weekend with five games remaining on the schedule prior to the opening of CIF, SS, playoff action on Nov. 22.

Perhaps one of the biggest surprises of the weekend, discounting several upset victories, was Pacifica High's defeat at the hands of Bell Gardens.

The victory was the Pacifica Lancers' first since 1963, a period spanning 44 games. Even though they had two ties (one in 1964 and another in 1967), the Lancers had not seen the win column in over four years.

Other major upsets included Western's surprise victory over second-rated "AAAA" power Santa Ana, winless Mater Dei's triumph over Long Beach Wilson, and fourth-ranked Loara's win over previously top-rated "AAA" power South Pasadena.

Several "AAAA" encounters dot the schedule this week as Anaheim and Santa Ana meet in a "must" game at La Palma Park on Friday night, Loyola and Notre Dame kick off the Del Rey League season on Friday night, and Blair and Pasadena match undefeated records at the Rose Bowl.

On the "AAA" schedule, top matches include Serra at St. Bernard and Montgomery at Mt. Carmel (Camino Real League), and Ganesha at Pomona (San Antonio League).

The unbeaten schools with 40 records are:

"AAAA"—Arroyo, Bishop Amat, Blair, Hueneme, Newport Harbor, Pasadena, St. Paul, West Covina, West Torrance.

"AAA"—Baldwin Park, Bishop Montgomery, Cabrillo, Claremont, Fullerton, Ganesha, Laguna Beach, Loara, Rolling Hills, St. Bernard, Savanna, Upland.

El Camino Goes To Santa Monica

The Metropolitan Conference football plot "thickens" tonight when El Camino College faces Santa Monica in the "battle of the unbeaten" at Corsair Stadium.

Both schools share the Metropolitan Conference football lead with defending champ Bakersfield. They are undefeated with 4-0 season and 2-0 conference records.

While the Warriors barely squeezed by Cerritos 20-17 and SMCC belted Pierce, 34-14, Bakersfield came from behind to defeat Long Beach City College 28-19.

Leading both the Metro scoring and rushing columns, El Camino's Dave Boyd takes the helm of the Warriors' offensive attack. The hard running freshman has rounded up 500 yards on 85 carries to take a 200-yard lead over LBCC's John Merino who has totaled 287 yards on 75 carries. Boyd has scored 38 points in four games.

Warrior quarterback Dan Heck has racked up 787 yards by completing 36 of 59 passes for nine TDs and has had three pass interceptions.

On the receiving end, sophomore John Featherstone has hauled in 14 aerials for 346 yards and four TDs.

The Warriors will be confronted by Santa Monica's Ken Boney, the latest in a long, long line of Corsair slingshots. To date Boney has hurled an even dozen touchdown bombs and has gained nearly a thousand yards in the air. Santa Monica's big running game is spearheaded by Bob Elliott (6-yard average) and Gene Martin (5-yard average).

In other week end games, Bakersfield's undefeated juggernaut rolls into Pasadena on Saturday while Valley entertains Cerritos. On Friday Long Beach hosts Pierce.

In last week's action, Bakersfield came from behind to beat Long Beach, 28-19, before a packed house of 18,914 at Bakersfield; Santa Monica socked Pierce, 34-13; and Pasadena slammed Valley, 17-6.

Boney tossed three touchdown passes in Santa Monica's conquest of Pierce.

Water Polo

Chris Dryden scored six goals as Bishop Montgomery defeated Harvard, 15-3, in a water polo match on Wednesday.

Harvard won the jayvees, 11-5, and Bishop took the Cees, 11-3.

Pepperdine Gets Coach For Baseball

Wayne Wright has been appointed head baseball coach at Pepperdine College. Wright, who formerly served as the school's golf coach, will succeed Gail Hopkins who joined the Chicago White Sox system.

A catcher-first baseman, he will report to the White Sox Sarasota, Fla. spring training camp in February.

Wright named Frank Ketcham to continue his duties as assistant baseball coach.
